“Pays Visit to Dr. Whaley While at Chicago Fair”

Mr. and Mrs. C.B. Fairchild returned to Townsend Thursday evening of last week after enjoying a two months visit in Wausau, Wisconsin with their daughter, Mrs. W.A. Pennell, her husband and two daughters; in Chicago with Mrs. Fairchild's nephew, Dr. John Whaley, and family, and in Fargo, North Dakota with Mrs. Fairchild's cousin, Mrs. H.L. Hanson (Mildred McKoin). All were in the best of health and prosperous.

They report the splendid progress made by Dr. Whaley in his profession which will be happily received by former Broadwater County friends as Dr. Whaley is a native of this county, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Whaley of the valley. He has climbed steadily upward in his profession and recently has been asked to be assistant to Dr. E.P. Baughan a very prominent Chicago physician and surgeon.

“Townsend Grill Changes Hands”

The Grill Café changed hands this morning when Lester Goodwin of Helena purchased the same from Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Dumholt and took immediate possession. Mr. Goodwin will be assisted by Hans Kitendach who was a chef at the Townsend House many years ago when the dining room was open. Both these men have been working at both Eddy's and Weiss' cafes in Helena.

They will make a specialty of Sunday dinners at 50¢ and 60¢ and week day dinners at 35¢ and 50¢.

“Alex Barthule Flies Second Plane Home”

Alex Barthule flew in on Monday evening from Sugar City, Colorado with another airplane. This time it is an Aerosport with an eighty horsepower motor and is light grey in color. Sugar City is close to Pueblo.

It will be remembered that Alex went to New York state about two years ago and flew back a plane when few people knew that he could pilot one himself. He had that plane until last fall when he had an accident while trying to thaw the pipes and it caught on fire and burned. He left here on September 14th in company with his brother David to get this one. The return trip was made in three days and stopped on his way home to visit his sister at Custer.

“Teachers Honored at PTA Reception”

The teachers of Cecelia Hazelton School and Broadwater County High School were cleverly introduced at the reception held in their honor by the PTA Monday night at the multi-purpose room. A musical trio, consisting of Lenore Johnson, Marie Miller and Barbara Foster, serenaded the teachers with a musical introduction. Verses, which were appropriate to each teacher, were composed by Hilma White and Jean McElwee.

After the regular business meeting, Bob Southall, accompanied by Paulie Ragen, sang “Autumn Leaves” and “September Song”.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Mildred Neild, Mrs. Ed Sherwood and Mrs. Sewell Marks. Refreshments for the evening were furnished by Mrs. Bill Guffeey hospitality chairman, Mrs. Don Fogland, Mrs. Bob Kenney, Mrs. Ralph Thompson and Mrs. Bud Burt.
