

“What Happened this Week in History”

Submitted by Linda Huth; Sponsored by: The Cotter Foundation

February 13

1936

“Local News”

Mr. and Mrs. D.L. Hollaway and baby daughter, Trenna Lee, motored over from Boulder Sunday for the day.

Mrs. Chas. F. Mahony and daughter, Betty, are happy to be out of quarantine again. The quarantine was lifted Friday and Betty started to school again Monday, well as ever after a case of scarlet fever.

“Radersburg News”

Alfred Doughty went East one day last week with a load of horses.

Calvin Kramp and Jack Ralls are shipping some fine ore from the north end of the Ohio Mine.

Clark Edenfield was home for a short time with his family.

Due to the storm and deep snow drifts, the U.S. mail was unable to make the trip to Toston Tuesday.

Lawrence Poe of the valley was a visitor in town recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Greaves and Cecil Greaves motored over from York Wednesday and brought back Charlotte Williams who has been visiting at the Greaves home for several weeks.

The school bus did manage to get to Townsend Tuesday, but was unable to return.

“Winston News”

Quite a number of the miners from the Vosburg mine came down on Saturday, as the cold weather made it necessary to close the mill.

Two bad blizzards, one last Thursday and one Tuesday, piled the snow into large drifts on the streets and in front of the houses. The weather has been very cold for the past week.

Friends here were sorry to hear of the fire that burned Carpenter’s Café, and Michael’s barber shop in Townsend last week.

Mrs. Jack Bisby came down from the Queen Bee Mine near Hassel and spent Sunday and Monday with her father, Louis Kirch at his ranch home near here.

1964

“Essay Winners Announced at Americanism Meet”

An appropriate program was given in the multi-purpose room of the elementary school Wednesday afternoon jointly by the Auxiliary Unit No. 42 of the American Legion and the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, at which time those who participated in the Americanism essay contest, promoted by the Auxiliary, were given recognition.

The winners were: first place, Laura Lee Flynn; second, Jan Kirscher; third, Mary Jane Deadmond; fourth Tim Ragen; honorable mention, Margaret Mullany. Ribbons of appreciation were given all other essay participants.

Attorney Patrick F. Hooks addressed the group, complimenting them on their efforts and talked on heritages of freedom, bringing his remarks right to the point of influencing young thinkers of today. He pointed out some of the things not to bring into "freedom" and some of the blessings of their heritage, to his juvenile listeners.

Herbert Sprout acted as master of ceremonies and announced other parts of the program. Presentation of Colors and Pledge to the Flag, Boy Scouts; opening prayer, Legion Auxiliary Chaplain Mrs. Anna Lenahan; America the Beautiful, school chorus; Respect to the Flag, Geo. Gabisch; closing song and the retiring of the Colors.

Mrs. Lester Ballard, Americanism Chairman of the Legion Auxiliary, thanked the essay writers. She is to be complimented for her efforts in arousing a greater spirit of patriotism among the young people.

"Radersburg News"

Mrs. John F. Williams and Mrs. Estella Knight were Townsend business visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Grandchamp and Mrs. Doris Grandchamp were in Three Forks on business one day this week.

Erma Patterson and Mrs. Jack Ralls called on Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spangler Friday afternoon. They were gathering Centennial history

Mrs. Dennis Miller and son, Brent, called at the Wayne Miller home Friday on their way to Dillon from Helena.

W.D. Williams, W.G. Williams and John T. Williams were transacting business in Dillon Friday.

Among Townsend visitors this week were Charles Hough on Thursday and Mrs. Jack Ralls and Mitzie Stroup on Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Hough entertained at a bingo party Saturday night. Those present were Mrs. Bill Lavinder, Mrs. Bud Harris, Mrs. Bob Harris, Susie, Rita and Barbara Harris and Mrs. George Harris.

Terry and Sammy Harris attended the wedding of Pat Delger in Laurin Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nilson spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Williams and family.

Mrs. Charles Heisey and Mrs. Paul Parks of Helena spend Sunday with their brother, Bill Holdaway.