

“What Happened this Week in History”

Submitted by Linda Huth; Sponsored by: The Cotter Foundation

February 27

1936

“Local News”

Miss Louise Flynn has entered the Helena Business College. She is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. B.G. Norton and family while attending school.

G.W. Kirscher is making ready to ship a car load of cattle to Spokane the end of the week.

Officers who were elected this month to carry on the work of Holy Cross Alter Society for the year were: Mrs. James Herd, president; Mrs. F. Smazal, vice president; Mrs. F.G. McCarthy, treasurer and Mrs. P.H. Murphy, secretary.

1964

“Toston Briefs” by Lana Plummer

Many of the local residents drove to Bozeman Thursday, Friday and Saturday to attend the District 8 Class C basketball tournament, in which the Townsend Bulldogs took third place. Those going were: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Flynn and John; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Plummer and Lana; Louis Anzik; Jeanne Greaves and Bonnie Plymale; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Flynn and family; A.A. Campeau and Paul; Bill Berberet and Steve, Jane and Barbara Berberet; Richard Slifka; Terry Plummer; Arnold Berry and Tracy Plummer; Allen Foos; Lenny Harris; Gary Spatzierath and Gary Moudree.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flynn and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Berberet Sunday.

Rhonda and Hal Plummer spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Anzik and Terry Plummer.

Tracy Plummer and Arnold Berry stayed in Bozeman Friday and Saturday to attend the morning and afternoon games at the tournament.

“Radersburg News”

Sammy, Terry, Billy, Paul and Sally Harris, Denny Roberts, Tommy Williams and Janie Williams were among those attending the basketball tournament in Bozeman this week.

“Local News”

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sherwood and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Jepson recently spent a weekend in Pinedale, Wyo. visiting Herb’s brother, John Jepson and family.

Don Smith of Helena spent the weekend here with his father, Royal Smith, and aunt, Miss Salome Smith. Don works for the Montana Highway Department.